

Response To Love - Loving Response

The once effective “hell-fire and damnation” sermons have lost their popularity. No more do I hear a preacher plead, after an impassioned warning of the fate of the disobedient, “If you were to die tonight, where would you spend eternity?” Now, we react very negatively to “trying to scare people into heaven.”

Meeting with Brownwood preacher.

God loved us, saved us; now we respond to his love by loving. Loving we keep his commandments, not as a condition to receiving salvation but because he has saved us!!.

Just expressing love; thank you. No fear and trembling.

Holy Spirit to convict. Convicted and scared: John the Baptist, Pentecost, Saul Felix. Fearful thing to fall into the hands...
